

RESEARCH YOUR NEXT JOB

Topics will focus on resources available through Michigan.gov and the MeL Michigan E Library:

- Comprehensive info on 48 job searching sites
- Tests and tutorials for certifications
- Databases for college admissions
- Databases for researching businesses
- Labor outlook info sites

Schedule:

6:30 pm – 7:00 pm

Free resume review and job search networking

7:00 pm

Guest speaker

Free state publications will be available

Parking will be provided in the North lot off of Romeo Plank Rd.

hosted by

STATE REP. KIM MELTZER

with guest speakers

SHIRLEY DUDEK

TRAINER, MICHIGAN E LIBRARY

Free resume review by

MICHAEL KELLY

CERTIFIED ADVANCED RESUME WRITER/JOB COACH
PERSONALANDBIZWRITER.COM

Job search networking with

MARY LEMON

FACILITATOR, ST. PETER'S JOB SEEKERS

WED., JUNE 24, 2009

6:30-8:30 pm

St. Peter's Lutheran Church

17051 24 Mile Road | Macomb Township

Located on the Northwest corner of 24 Mile Rd. and Romeo Plank Rd.

RSVP by calling 1.800.209.3330 or e-mail
kimmeltzer@house.mi.gov

"More than ever job seekers need to take advantage of resources from the Library of Michigan through its Business and Careers Gateway. Join me in exploring strategies, information and outlooks for the job market."

"Learn good research methods to maximize your chances of finding and preparing for your next job opportunity."

