Cliffnotes—April 2009

A note from Bo ...

Seven years and running. That's right, seven years. I'm not sure where the thought first started, but we are going to be celebrating our seventh Laugh Out Loud in just a few days. And, I feel extremely blessed to be part of it for my third year.

What's the purpose of it all though? Why all the work? That's easy! Two things:

(1) I believe there is something powerful about several hundred people coming together in fellowship, laughter, and just good fun. There is a chemistry and encouragement that happens which in turn serves to strengthen the whole body.

Laugh Out Loud lends itself to this so easily.

(2) Laugh Out Loud provides the resources to help us continue our focus and mission within the student ministry here at St. Peter. A focus and mission that is about serving others, helping people to grow, and sharing the good news of Jesus Christ.

That's what we are about and that is why we log in the hours to make this event happen. It is a special evening and in turn impacts so many long after it is done.

With this years LOL coming up on Friday night, April 3rd, I hope that you are going to join us for the evening. I promise you will laugh, enjoy the food, desserts, and drinks, sing to the music, maybe even dance, and leave with a memory that you will have with you for years to come.

For more information, you can contact me at 586-992-9816 or by email at bchapman@splcs.com. We hope to see you there!

Peace,
Bo
