A Note From Bo ...

Another chapter is coming to a close. An interesting thought that is so timely with this time of year. Here in just a few weeks school will be winding down and summer will be upon us. Graduations, confirmations, and a whole host of other activities will fill our calendar and touch our heart along the way. Yes, another chapter is coming to a close.

But, with the close of one chapter begins page one of another. A new horizon filled with all sorts of possibilities. New friends, new faces, new surroundings, new expectations, new ... the list goes on. So many things just waiting for us to engage in. A new chapter for us.

So what will we do with a blank sheet of paper? Personally, I hope you grab onto God's hand and make the most of each and every day. Live life to the fullest that

He has to offer. Give yourself wholeheartedly to him and never look back.

A brand new day for us all. Let's live like never before!

Peace,
Bo

The Amazing Race

Friday night, May 1st, the race is on to test which team is quickest, smartest, and most able to complete their task and get back in time.

The event is open to our 7/8th grade students, as well as, some of our adventurous high school students. You just have to make sure you have a signed liability form to Bo by Wednesday, April 29th. These can be found online in the Youth section.

Everything kicks off at HIS Rock at 7p.m. and we will be done at 9:30p.m.

* Thank You ***

To all of our friends and families who made Laugh Out Loud 7 such a success. Your support of the ongoing mission and vision of the St. Peter Lutheran Church Student Ministry is phenomenal.

* Thank You ***

To all of our students who helped to make the community wide Easter Egg hunt such a great morning for our church and surrounding neighborhood. You guys were fantastic!

* Thank You ***

To all of the dads and sons who worked at the Easter Breakfast. You made a great morning even better. Also, your example of service and leadership is truly appreciated by so many.

Congratulations Confirmands ...

Some see this as the end of the journey. It's not so. This is only the beginning! Congratulations my friends on your hard work and commitment. My hope is that over the past few years you have had a chance to really obtain a deeper understanding of what you believe and why. Now, the next part of the journey is ready for you to begin. Will you join me over the next four years of high school as we travel step by step with God into some amazing experiences? You will laugh, you may cry, you will grow, you will be changed ... I promise!

“THERE IS ONLY ONE YOU...
DON'T YOU DARE CHANGE
JUST BECAUSE YOU'RE OUTNUMBERED”
CHARLES SWINDOLL

1) You can wear shorts. In regards to length, when putting your arms to your sides you should not be able to touch skin. Shorts that are too short will not be allowed into the dance.

2) T-shirts are perfect. Wearing tops that show undergarments, belly buttons, and/or cleavage are not acceptable.

3) No undergarments should be showing.

4) If you aren't sure, change. We don't want you to get to the dance and then not get in. Remember: Honor God, honor yourself, honor others, have fun! It's that simple.

Thank you parents for your support in helping us to provide a great atmosphere for our kids.
